

Mr. Li Lingshen

Vice Chairman of China National Textile and Apparel Council

Mr. Li Lingsheng held a bachelor degree from China Textile University (now known as Donghua University), a master from University of International Business and Economics, and a Ph.D. from Donghua University.

He currently served as Vice President of China National Textile and Apparel Council (CNTAC), Director of the National Technical Committee on Textiles, Director of the National Technical Committee on Technical Textiles, and Vice Chairman of the Committee on Fibers and Fibre Applications of the International Textile Manufacturers Federation (ITMF), among other positions.